

Once you and I have made a covenant with God, our relationship with Him becomes much closer than before our covenant.

Now we are bound together.

Because of our covenant with God, He will never tire in His efforts to help us, and we will never exhaust His merciful patience with us. Each of us has a special place in God's heart.

He has high hopes for us.

Russell M. Nelson,
"The Everlasting Covenant"

Reflection

When have you felt your covenants connect you to Heavenly Father in a personal way, especially during a season when you felt alone?

What part of your life do you need to place more fully in God's hands right now?

When you feel you have fallen short, what helps you remember that God never grows tired of helping you?

Once you and I have made a covenant with God, our relationship with Him becomes much closer than before our covenant.

Now we are bound together.

Because of our covenant with God, He will never tire in His efforts to help us, and we will never exhaust His merciful patience with us. Each of us has a special place in God's heart.

He has high hopes for us.
